

Professor Shui Yan Tang
Visiting Chair Professor, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
Francis R and John J Duggan Distinguished Professor University of Southern California

Visiting Chair Professor in the Department of Management and Marketing at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University; Frances R and John J Duggan Distinguished Professor in Public Administration in the Sol Price School of Public Policy; and Research Director for the Judith and John Bedrosian Center on Governance and the Public Enterprise, University of Southern California.

Professor Tang's research focuses on institutional analysis and design, common-pool resource governance, environmental politics and policy, microfinance, collaborative governance, and governance reform. He is the author of Institutions and Collective Action: Self-Governance in Irrigation (ICS Press, 1992), Ten Principles for a Rule-ordered Society: Enhancing China's Governing Capacity (China Economic Publishing House, 2012), and (with Carlos Lo) Institutions, Regulatory Styles, Society, and Environmental Governance in China (Routledge, July, 2013 forthcoming). In addition, he has published over 50 journal articles. Professor Tang was an associate editor of the Journal of Public Administration Research and Theory, and he was elected as a Fellow of the US National Academy of Public Administration in 2009. Professor Tang earned his PhD in Public Policy from Indiana University and both his MPhil and BSocSc in Government and Public Administration from The Chinese University of Hong Kong.