

Professor Agnes Yeung

Department of Sociology and Social Work
Sun Yat-Sen University

Law is a professor in the Sociology and Social Work Department and the Director of the Centre for Social Work Education and Research of Sun Yat-sen University, Guangzhou, China since 2002 to present. She is the Director-general of the Qi Chuang (HK) Social Services Network and the founder of Qi Chuang Social Work Service Centers in mainland China. She is also the Chief Professional Supervisor of the Social Workers Association of Guangdong Province.

Prior to her engagement with mainland organizations, she has worked for a long time in Hong Kong, in the NGO sector, the City University of Hong Kong, Baptist University, as well as served in volunteer capacity in various public organizations, like the Women Commission, the Equal Opportunity Commission, etc.

Her current research projects include capacity building of NGOs, evaluation of home care services for the elderly, community care for the migrant children, and service models for special need groups.