

Mrs Susan Lee Cheung

Fundraising Chair

Nomi Network

Mrs Susan Lee Cheung received her Masters in Public Administration from the Robert F Wagner Graduate School of Public Service at New York University and her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Columbia University. She is currently a development consultant for various non-profit organizations in New York City. Mrs Cheung served as the Program Manager for Development at AAFE Community Development Fund and the Advocacy Associate at Covenant House International where she worked on its anti-trafficking campaign in Latin America. In 2009, Mrs Cheung left her consulting business to serve as Volunteer Coordinator for Margaret Chin for City Council campaign where she successfully helped elect Margaret Chin to the New York City Council as the first female Chinese American elected. Thereafter, she served as Interim Director of Community Relations with Council member Chin's office. Mrs Cheung joined Nomi Network as its Fundraising Chair in 2009.