

Professor Xu Jialiang

School of International and Public Affairs

Shanghai Jiao Tong University

Xu Jialiang, Professor of School of International and Public Affairs and Executive Director of Center for the Third Sector at Shanghai Jiao Tong University. He received his Bachelor degree from Zhejiang University, MA degree from Fudan University, and PhD from the Peking University. His research interests include public organization, third sector, local governance and public policy.

He is an editor-in-chief of China Third Sector Research. He has published more than 50 academic articles and books, particularly on China's civil society and public policy. Some of his major books, his authored, and translated books are Introduction to Social Organization (2011); Member Serving-Organization: China Chamber of Commerce Research (2010); On the Governmental Evaluation (2006); Institutional, Influence and Game: All China Women's Federation and Public Policy Making (2003), etc.