

Mr Rick Tang

Trustee, Fu Tak lam Foundation

Mr Rick Tang is an Alumnus of HKU Law School and member of Ricci Hall.

A lawyer by training, he has lived and worked in 6 countries for top-tier multinationals in senior management positions. His corporate experience includes being a member of the Management Board of Hong Kong Telecom, then the second largest company in Hong Kong, the Chief International Counsel of British Telecom where he managed their lawyers in all the countries except the U.K., and Senior Vice-President of GE Capital, Asia Region.

He left the corporate world in 2006 to manage his family assets. He exercises vigorous risk management discipline and his Return On Equity (ROE) has met or bettered those of the top funds in the world, especially during the financial crisis of 2008.

He is an advisor for third generation family members on issues of philanthropy and succession planning. He serves as a trustee for Fu Tak lam Foundation and chairman of its Grants Allocation Committee. He also coaches frontline non-profit organizations to adopt efficient management practices. His services are all pro-bono.

Rick is married to his wife for over 35 years, who is also an alumna of HKU and ex-chairman of Lady Hotung Hall. They have two adult daughters.
