

Dr. Andrew Chan
Director
Urban Renewal Fund Limited

Dr. Andrew Chan is a veteran in the planning and development field with qualifications in planning, law, business administration, arbitration and mediation. His career is also distinguished by his long association with academics and NGOs. For more than 20 years, he has been teaching law and community engagement, in a part-time capacity, to students of urban planning, architecture, and social work at the University of Hong Kong. He is widely known for his long involvement in public housing, urban renewal and social welfare in Hong Kong.

Presently he serves on the newly formed Urban Renewal Fund Limited, Supporting Services Development Committee of the Hong Kong Hospital Authority and Review Committee of the Urban Renewal Authority. Besides he is a member of the Executive Committee of St. James' Settlement, Social Work Committee of Caritas and Advisory Committee on Social Work and Social Administration Department of Hong Kong University.

Previously, he was a member of Executive Committee of the Hong Kong Council of Social Service, Planners Registration Board, Antiquities Advisory Board, Urban Renewal Strategy Review Steering Committee and the Hong Kong Housing Authority serving as Chairman of Commercial Properties Committee and as a Member of Building Committee as well Tender Committee. He is a recipient of the Bronze Bauhinia Star medal.