

Community Revitalisation of Post-earthquake - The Case of Dujiangyan from Temporary Housing to Long Term Resettlement

Shanghai was assigned to provide assistance to Dujiangyan, a hard hit community with heavy death and disability tolls of people. The study Based on experiences in Dujiangyan, covers the process of Community Revitalization of post-earthquake, illustrates how intervention of location social work in temporary housing and dweller take part in community redevelopment actively.