

Professor Joshua Miller

Associate Dean

School for Social Work, Smith College

Joshua Miller, PhD, M S W has been a social worker for 40 years and a professor of social work at Smith College for over 20 years and is an Honorary Professor at Beijing Normal University. He has responded to many disasters in the US and internationally and teaches courses on psychosocial capacity building in response to disasters. His latest book - Psychosocial Capacity Building in Response to Disasters - was published in 2012 by Columbia University Press.