

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
HKU-HKJC ExCEL3

Symposium on Five Years after the Wenchuan Earthquake:
Community and Organisational Responses and Transformations

Date: Tuesday, May 14, 2013
Time: 9:00am – 1:00pm
Venue: Social Sciences Chamber, 11/F, The Jockey Club Tower, HKU
Co-organiser: Department of Social Work and Social Administration, HKU

TIME	PROGRAMME
9:00am	Welcoming Address Professor John P. Burns, Dean of Social Sciences
9:15am	The Ties that Bind Us Together: The Use of Groups to Foster Connection and Resiliency after a Disaster Professor Joshua Miller, Associate Dean, School for Social Work, Smith College
9:45am	Capacity Building after Disaster: Contributions of Coalition of Chuen Meng from Taiwan into Sichuan Professor Feng Yen, Department of Social Work, National Taiwan University
10:15 am	Community Revitalization - The Case of Dujiangyan from Temporary Housing to Long Term Resettlement Professor Fan Bin, Chair, Department of Social Work, East China University of Science and Technology
10:45am	Coffee Break
11:15am	Panel Presentations: The Significance of Community-based Rehabilitation Programmes after the Wenchuan Earthquake Mrs. Sheila Purves, Project Director, International and China Programmes, The Hong Kong Society for Rehabilitation Disaster Management in Mega Disaster Ms. Bonnie So, Deputy Secretary General (Services), Hong Kong Red Cross Psychosocial Recovery for Children and Adults Disabled by Sichuan Earthquake - A Capacity Building Perspective Professor Johnston Wong, Representative, Social Workers Across Borders
12:15pm	Open Discussion Moderator: Dr. Amy Chow, Associate Professor, Department of Social Work and Social Administration, HKU

April 9, 2013