

Tommy Liang

Honorary Director, Family Research and Training Institute
Urban India Ministries

Tommy K L Liang, R S W, B S W (Hons), MSocSc (Counseling), Dip Grad ThSt, MPhil (Psychology), PhD (Psychology) candidate, is Honorary Director of Family Research and Training Institute, Urban India Ministries, Bangalore, and adjunct faculty in Christ University, South Asia Institute of Advanced Christian Studies, and Global School of Counseling. He is a Clinical Member of the Satir Institute of the Pacific, Canada, and a Full Member of Christian Association of Psychological Studies, USA, International Family Therapy Association, USA, and Indian Association for Family Therapy, India. He is an authorised trainer and administrator of Taylor-Johnson Temperament Analysis in India. He has conducted numerous trainings on counselor education, and the latest of which are Application of Reality Therapy to Clients with Marital Problem (Indian Association for Family Therapy 2012 International Conference, Delhi) and Male Depression and Early Family Experiences: Implications for Practice in South India (International Family Therapy Association 2013 World Family Therapy Congress, Florida). He has also published over 20 articles on issues related to men, marriages and families, and the latest of which is Men's Experiences of Depression and Family's Role in Gender Socialization: A Phenomenological Study from Urban South India (Journal of Comparative Family Studies, Vol. 43, No. 1 issue 2012).