

Michele Raphael

Project Manager

ExCEL3 Project, The University of Hong Kong

Ms Raphael has over 5 years of professional experience in Hong Kong, China and the UK in project management, education, research, nonprofit capacity-building, and interfaith dialogue. She has extensive experience in the nonprofit sector, and works with an array of community organisations and faith-based groups in China, Macau and Hong Kong, to develop their individual and organisational capacity for service in community development. Michele is also an experienced educator, and obtained her Qualified Teacher Status through Teach First, a partner organisation of Teach for America. She has taught Religious Studies in an inner-city London school, tutored common core studies at HKU, conducted youth development training workshops at HKUST, and was a curriculum consultant at CUHK. Michele holds a Double MSc (Distinction) in International Affairs from Peking University and London School of Economics, and a BA (First Class) in Theology & Religious Studies from University of Cambridge. She is currently studying her PhD in Sociology/Anthropology at the University of Hong Kong.
