

Carol Woods

Board Committee

Regent College Marketplace Institute

Carol Woods has spent most of her adult life in Human Resources related work. She has been actively involved with education in her spheres of influence, with continuing involvement in settlement and job hunting for immigrants. Carol also mentors professional women who are in business internationally. She is currently a board member of the Regent College Marketplace Institute.