

Greg Berzonsky

Vice President

United Way Worldwide

Greg Berzonsky acts as Vice President of United Way Worldwide, which oversees nearly 1,800 community-based United Ways in 45 countries and territories that advances the common good through mobilizing people to give, advocate, and volunteer to improve the conditions in which they live. In addition, Mr. Berzonsky was the founding director of The Freedom Forum's European office, located in Zurich, Switzerland. He also served as Associate Director of the Obor Foundation, an organization dedicated to making texts on basic medical care, emergency medicine and childcare available in local languages to impoverished populations in Africa, Southeast Asia and the Indian Subcontinent.