

Dr Victor Kuo

Founder

VK Global Advising

Victor Kuo, PhD, is a consultant, researcher, and evaluator who has spent fifteen years helping philanthropic foundations measure their social impact. Currently, he is founder of VK Global Advising and leads projects in strategic planning, evaluation, and organizational development. Previously, he was a senior consultant with FSG Social Impact Advisors, evaluation officer at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and research associate in the Evaluation and Learning Services unit at the David & Lucile Packard Foundation. He has consulted on developing evaluation systems, evaluation planning, and conducting evaluations of projects in early childhood education, K-12 education, post-secondary education, conservation and the environment, arts and culture, health, and civil society. Dr Kuo served on the Board of Directors of the American Evaluation Association and currently serves on the Advisory Board of GreatNonprofits. He also holds the position of Director of Strategic Planning and Research at Seattle Colleges which serve 50,000 and are the largest community college system in Washington State, USA. He has spoken on evaluation in philanthropy in Hong Kong, Singapore, Saigon, and throughout the U S. He earned his PhD from Stanford University, MA from Teachers College Columbia University, and BA from Pomona College.