

Edwin Lee

Philanthropy Advisor, WiseGiving
The Hong Kong Council of Social Service

Edwin is a Philanthropy Advisor for the WiseGiving unit of The Hong Kong Council of Social Service. As a Philanthropy Advisor, Edwin advises donor-clients on giving strategies, including conducting research on community needs, performing due diligence, project monitoring and evaluation on behalf of donors. WiseGiving's clients span a wide range of donors, including corporations, private foundations, community foundations and even individuals, whose charitable ambitions tackle a diverse set of social issues.

Prior to joining the Council, Edwin was the Director of Corporate Social Responsibility for a publicly-listed real estate and hotel developer. In that capacity, he also helped manage the Chairman's own private foundation. Edwin was also Charities Manager at The Hong Kong Jockey Club, where he performed due diligence and analysis on ~HK$800 million worth of grant applications.

Before embarking on a career in philanthropy, Edwin was a Senior Associate Consultant with Bain & Company, a leading strategy consulting firm based in Boston, USA.

Edwin is a Board Member of his own family's foundation, the Simon K Y Lee Foundation. The Foundation is the charitable giving vehicle for Sun Hing Holdings Limited, which won the Coutts Prize for Family Business Hong Kong 2013 in the Family Philanthropy category.

He holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics magna cum laude from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, and a Master of Business Administration from Yale University.
