

Chou Wah Shan

Chief Executive officer

Dreams Possible

Dr Chou Wah-Shan attained his PhD in Sociology at University of York (England) in 1996. He lectured at Polytechnic University (1988-1991) and HKU (1994-1998) in sociology and cultural studies. He has published 30 books on those subjects. In 1999, Dr Chou started a 5-year anthropological study of Mosuo in Yunan, the last matrilineal culture in China. In 2000, he founded the Musuo Education Fund to build more than 10 schools in the region, benefiting hundreds of pupils. Upon returning to Hong Kong in 2003, Dr Chou became the CEO of a mental health NGO. He has since then developed self-empowerment and leadership training programs for organizations and business ventures. In 2006, he founded Dreams Possible (DP), which is now a charity of over 100 active volunteers serving HK society. Dr Chou becomes full-time volunteer CEO of DP in January 2013.
