

Strive for the unlimited with limited time

Is it really possible to balance life and work? In this session, international and Hong Kong leaders will share their best practice of time management, and enlighten audience with a take-away that we can all achieve more if we are aware of these tips.

Mr. George Yen holds six corporate management positions when he serves as the International President of Toastmasters International during 2013-2014. Ms. Esther Lee holds management positions in multi-national corporate and is a Toastmasters member for 20 years. She also completed the 100km Oxfam Trailwalker for 3 times, and is a proud mother. Mr. Frank Lee is a series entrepreneur who also has a strong interest in arts. He is the president of Manner Movie, and writes and produces movies that can shake the world. Ms. Molly Yip works in AON HK as a manager looking after global account business in 13 countries in Asia, spreading between Korean to Indonesia from north to the south, and between Japan and Pakistan from east to the west. She is an active volunteer in Hong Kong/China Toastmasters community. She also addicts to diving and other outdoor sports.