

Frank Lee

President, Manner Movie

Mr. Frank Lee founded New Experience Toastmasters for ten years and China Windmill Foundation since 2007. He served multinational corporations in sales and marketing for Hewlett Packard and Tektronix, as general manager of China Regional Headquarters for Apollo Computer and Silicon Graphics. Frank established many software suppliers, value-added resellers, training and service providers in Asia in the last 30 years. He served as advisor to international and mainland corporations in technology development and investment, and invested in early stage technology companies. Frank financed and executive produced SONS OF CUBA, a documentary which won 14 awards, SCROOGE'S NEW YEAR, a stage-play inspired by Dickens' Christmas Carol and THIRTY-SEVEN, a feature film. He is also the President of Manner Movie Ltd.
