

Ms Christine Kwan

Chief Operating Officer

HKCSS WiseGiving

Christine Kwan has 20 years of experience in working with donors. She has led WiseGiving since its inception and dedicated her time in promoting effective partnerships between donors and charities. Christine advises family, corporate and community foundations on governance and grant making practices. She has developed and managed giving programmes that build sustainable social assets by leveraging donors' resources to address social needs. She also works with individual donors on their giving to Mainland China, conducts due diligence and project audit on the ground. Christine holds a MA from the Chinese University of Hong Kong.