

Dr Yu Chan

Deputy Programme Director

Master of Social Sciences in Nonprofit Management

The University of Hong Kong

Dr Yu Chan is an expert in nonprofit management and philanthropy, social policy and NGOs, women's studies, information technology and nonprofit innovations, civil society capacity building, and impact measurement. She currently coordinates Master of Social Sciences in Nonprofit Management Programme in the University of Hong Kong. Chan had served as Project Manager of Li Ka Shing Foundation, Executive Director of Hong Kong Federation of Women's Centers, Executive Director of Centre on Women's Studies at Shantou University, Board of Directors of HER Fund, Founder of the First Step Association for the Disabled, Chinese Working Women Network and served in different standing committees of Hong Kong Council of Social Services.

Dr Chan was on the board of project management in several nation-wide philanthropic projects in government-nonprofit collaborations in the PRC include Ministry of Civil Affairs, Ministry of Education, All China Women's Federation, China Disability People's Federation and other national professional associations.

Dr Chan received her doctorate from the University of Hong Kong and served as honorary clinical associates at the Centre on Aging, the Centre on Behavioral Health.