

Mr Kee Chi Hing

Adjunct Associate Professor

School of Business, Hong Kong Baptist University

Kee Chi Hing is an Adjunct Associate Professor of the Business School of Hong Kong Baptist University. He is also the Chair of Fullness Social Enterprises Society as well as a member of the Social Enterprise Advisory Committee in Home Affairs Bureau, the Community Investment and Inclusion Fund in Labour and Welfare Bureau, and the Digital Inclusion Task Force in the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer. Before retirement, he was a Corporate Vice President and Hong Kong's Managing Director of Hewlett-Packard (HP) responsible for a HK$4 Billion business.

He graduated from The University of Hong Kong in Electrical Engineering, attended the General Manager Programme in Harvard Business School, and has Master degrees in Christian Studies and in Theological Studies from The Chinese University of Hong Kong.