

Ms Malini Thadani

Head of Corporate Sustainability, Asia Pacific

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (HSBC)

Biography

Malini joined HSBC India in 1995. She was Head of Communications, Public Policy and Corporate Sustainability until 2012, when she moved to Hong Kong.

“Sustainable businesses and communities for a sustainable future”, is the credo that Malini strives to embed in the strategic business framework of HSBC. As Head of Corporate Sustainability for HSBC in Asia, she helps to manage a sustainability risk framework, identify opportunities for climate business and unlock value by enhancing HSBC’s engagement with and support of socio-economic issues around education and the environment, in the 19 markets in Asia where the Bank operates.

HSBC Community Partnership Programme

From its inception 150 years ago, HSBC has supported the community in every market we serve. Through the Hongkong Bank Foundation, over HKD1.4 billion have been committed to charitable cause in Hong Kong. Launched in July 2012, the HSBC Community Partnership Programme is an annual HKD18 million funding scheme supported by the Home Affairs Department, the Social Welfare Department and the Hong Kong Council of Social Service. It aims to bring communities together, to address social needs and to inspire district-based initiatives through cross-sector collaboration.
