

Ms Fanny Ong

Superintendent, Jockey Club Rehabilitation Complex
Tung Wah Group of Hospitals

Biography

Ms Ong got her double degree in Social Work and Sociology in USA and MBA degree from the Hong Kong Baptist University.

Currently, Ms Ong is the superintendent of TWGHs Jockey Club Rehabilitation Complex. Ms Ong has been actively engaging in the field of vocational rehabilitation and social enterprises. Through trans-sector collaboration and participating in different platforms, Ms Ong aims to promote and enhance social impact in HK. Presently Ms Ong is the Council member of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Social Enterprises and the member of the Disciplinary Committee Panel of the Social Work Registration Board.

Since 2008, Towngas collaborated with Tung Wah Group of Hospitals to launch the “CookEasy” Social Enterprise, which is the first food pack business of its kind in Hong Kong. CookEasy aims to provide job opportunities for people with disabilities. Riding on her expertise and solid marketing and catering experiences, Towngas is keen to nurture and develop CookEasy to be the leading SE in the food pack business field.

CookEasy and Towngas were awarded the Outstanding Partnership Project Award 2014/15 by the HKCSS under The Caring Company Scheme.