

Ms Jianmei Peng

Executive Secretary-General, China Charity Alliance

Biography

Jianmei, previously known as the Associate Senior Editor of China Youth Magazine, Vice-president of China Philanthropy Times, and is currently the Director of China Charity and Donation Information Center.

In addition to her 15 years' experience in media, she also had 10 years' experience in philanthropy policy advocacy, charity donation research and capacity building and development of charity organisations.

She mainly focuses on social innovation, Corporate Social Responsibility, NGO accountability and China Cities Charity Index. China Charity Alliance is committed to act as a platform to mobilise all social forces to take part in philanthropy, to help the charities both at home and abroad to stay informed, to promote NGO's transparency and accountability, and to advance the development of China's philanthropic sector.