

From Heritage Preservation to Cultivating Community Resilience

The speech will focus on the holistic, integrated approach that Kadoorie Farm and Botanic Garden (KFBG) has adopted in transforming the Old Tai Po Police Station (a Grade 1 historic building) to a Green Hub for sustainable living. The project has extended the perspective and contribution of a historic building preservation project to nature conservation, community empowerment and sustainable development.