

Ms Lynette Nam

Justice Centre Fellow

Justice Centre Hong Kong Limited

Biography

Lynette is the Justice Centre Fellow and a member of the Protection Claimant Services team at Justice Centre Hong Kong, which provides direct legal and psychosocial support to asylum seekers and refugees seeking non-refoulement protection in Hong Kong. She is an Australian qualified lawyer and holds a dual degree in Bachelor of Arts/Laws (Hon) from the University of Queensland. Before joining Justice Centre, Lynette worked at Fragomen Worldwide, an international law firm specialising in immigration law, in Australia and Hong Kong. Previous to this, Lynette was a human rights trainer on the Thai-Burma border, where she developed and implemented a curriculum on non-violent social change for young Karenni refugees. Lynette has also worked with Refugees International Japan in Tokyo, as well as various community legal centres in Australia.
