

Ms Patricia Ho

Legal Associate, Daly and Associates

Biography

Patricia Ho joined Daly & Associates in 2006. Currently, Patricia specialises in judicial reviews and public law work, with experience in asylum, immigration, human trafficking, human rights and international law. She has been representing asylum seekers in the UNHCR, HK office and has been on the panel of the Duty Lawyer Service's Legal Assistance Scheme to Non-Refoulement Claimants since its launch. For the latter screening process, she has been representing over 50 claimants through all its different stages.

As part of the advocacy work, Patricia has been providing pro bono legal advice to local NGOs and churches in Hong Kong on matters relating to refugees, torture claimants and victims of human trafficking.
