

Organising for Social Impact in a Complex World

This workshop will address key organisational development challenges for mission-based NGOs, including strategy development and collaboration with the private sector. It will utilise interactive techniques to provide experiential learning with respect to key strategic planning skills, within a conceptual framework concerning the role of civil society in today's global political economy. The workshop will provide useful skills and insights for achieving social impact both locally and globally.