

Good Governance, Public Accountability and Transparency through Community Engagement

This symposium will examine positive examples and lessons learned in community engagement, good governance, and accountability mechanisms. Examples will be drawn from dispute resolution processes responsive to large public finance projects, sustainable development work within the government and non-profit sector and post-disaster governance.