

Professor David Smith

Research and Emeritus Professor of Sociology
Boston College

Biography

David Horton Smith (Ph.D. Sociology, Harvard, 1965) was the founder of ARNOVA (www.arnova.org) and NVSQ journal, and thus of the organised global field of voluntaristics. Co-recipient of the first (1993) ARNOVA Award for Distinguished Lifetime Contribution to Nonprofit and Voluntary Action Research and of the 2016 TIBS Perlmutter theory Award, he has bios in the International Encyclopedia of Civil Society (Springer, 2010) and in Marquis' Who's Who in the World since 2001. President of ICSERA (www.icsera.org), Editor-in-Chief of VOLUNTARISTICS REVIEW, and Research and Emeritus Professor at Boston College, Smith has authored/edited 20 published books/monographs, several international encyclopedia entries, and over 150 journal articles and book chapters. He currently is an Honorary Visiting Professor or Research Professor/Scholar at six universities on four continents, several of these being top universities in their respective nations.