Introduction of Curriculum

Curriculum Structure

Interdisciplinary Studies Major

- Qualitative & Quantitative Methods in Interdisciplinary Studies I & II (12 credits)
- Interdisciplinary Capstone Course (12 credits)

Two Pathways

Culture / Societies (30 credits)

- Language & Literature, Cultural Studies, History, Fine Arts
- Sociology, Psychology, Politics & Public Administration, Geography
- Earth Sciences

Physical World / Biological / Human Sciences (30 credits)

- Biological Sciences, Environmental Science, Chemistry, Physics
- Global Environment, Cognitive Science, Human Behaviour, Social Development
- Philosophy, Language & Communication

Social Innovation [non-local/ local] (12 credits)

Co-designed & co-taught by Faculties of Arts,
Science,
Social Sciences

Academic Advising: Own study plan

Bachelor of Arts & Sciences

BASc Core Courses (18 credits)

Year 1, Semester 1

Leadership Beyond Borders

September 7-9 Part 1: Becoming Leaders

October 14-18 Part 2: Global Leader Experience

November Part 3: Leadership through Design Thinking

Year 1, Semester 2

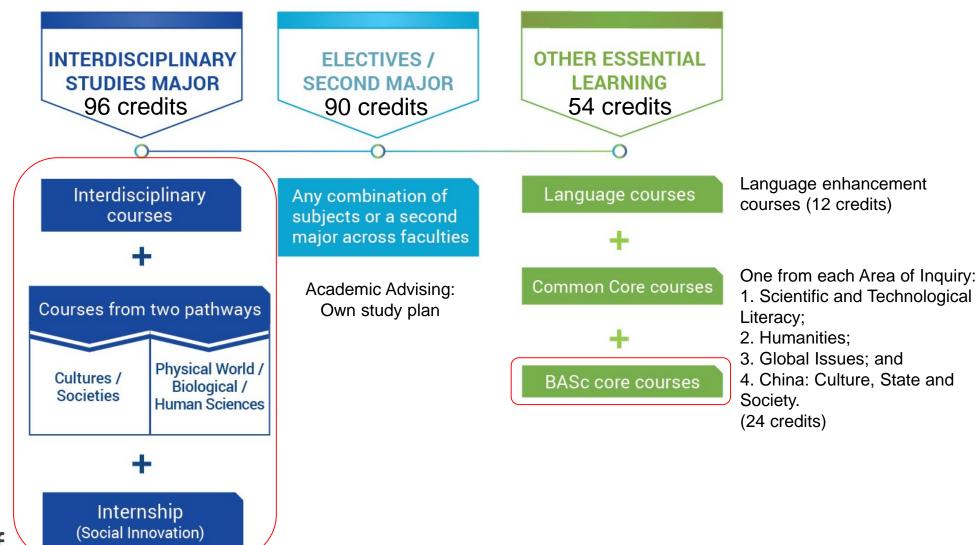

Foundations of Human Knowledge

Year 2

Basic Programming and Computer Software Skills

Curriculum Structure

Study Pathway

Year 1

Semester 1

- Interdisciplinary course: Qualitative & Quantitative Methods in Interdisciplinary Studies I
- BASc core course: Leadership Beyond Borders

Semester 2

- Interdisciplinary course: Qualitative & Quantitative
   Methods in Interdisciplinary Studies II
- BASc core course: Foundations of Human Knowledge

You will work your way through:

- Language courses (year 1-3)
- Common core courses (year 1-3)
- Courses from the two pathways (year 1-4)
- Courses for other major/ minor or free electives (year 1-4)

*You may start planning for your Social Innovation (year 2-3 including summer) and Interdisciplinary Capstone (year 3-4). BASc core course: Basic Programming and Computer Software Skills is required to enroll in year 2.

Bachelor of Arts & Sciences

Faculty of Arts
Faculty of Science
Faculty of Social Sciences