

Professor Alan Smart
Department of Anthropology
The University of Calgary

Alan Smart (PhD, U Toronto, 1986) is a Professor in the Department of Anthropology, University of Calgary. He has conducted research in Hong Kong since 1983, in China since 1987, and in Canada since 1999 on housing, urban issues, cross-border flows of labour and capital, agriculture and zoonotic diseases. He is the author of "Making Room: Squatter Clearance in Hong Kong" and "The Shek Kip Mei Myth: Squatters, Fires and Colonial Rule in Hong Kong, 1950-1963" and co-editor (with Josephine Smart) of "Petty Capitalists and Globalization". He has published numerous journal articles and book chapters.