

Professor Kao Cheng-shu
Chairman, Board of Trustees
Feng Chia University, Taiwan

Biography

Professor Kao Cheng-shu is the Chairman of Board of Trustee of Feng Chia University and Honorable Professor of Department of Sociology of Tunghai University. He used to be a visiting professor in University of Washington and Harvard University of the US and Catholic Leuven University of Belgium. He also served as a visiting scholar in the Rockefeller Foundation Bellagio Study and Conference Center in Italy and a member of Board of Trustees of Foundation for Christian Higher Education in Asia. He is a distinguished scholar in the communities of sociology and business management in Taiwan. Professor Kao earned his master and doctoral degrees in Ohio State University after he finished his bachelor's degree in Tunghai University of Taiwan.

Professor Kao has been dedicated to the research of social and industrial developments of Taiwan, China as well as other Asian countries.