

Professor Fu Hualing

Department of Law

The University of Hong Kong

Biography

Professor Fu Hualing is a Professor at Department of Law, The University of Hong Kong. He specializes in criminal justice studies, human rights and constitutional law in China. He teaches Corruption, Human Rights in China, and Legal Relations between Hong Kong and Mainland China.

Professor Fu has published widely in both local and international journals. His books include: National Security and Fundamental Freedoms: Hong Kong's Article 23 Under Scrutiny (edited with Carole Petersen and Simon Young, 2005), Hong Kong's Constitutional Debate: Conflict over Interpretation (edited with Johannes Chan and Y Ghai, 2000) and Media Law in the People's Republic of China (with Richard Cullen, 1996). He is also the China Law editor for Hong Kong Law Journal.

His current research includes the constitutional status of Hong Kong and its legal relations with mainland China, dispute resolution and the role of the courts and criminal justice reform in China.