Ms Daisy Cheung
Department of Law

Biography
Ms Daisy Cheung is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Law at The University of Hong Kong. She is the Deputy Director of the Centre for Medical Ethics and Law and currently co-teaches Medico-Legal Issues for the LLB and JD/LLM programs, as well as tort and contract law.

Ms Cheung’s research interests are in the field of medical law, primarily mental health law and ethics. She is also interested in issues in assisted reproduction.
Dr Eric Ip
Department of Law

Biography
Dr Eric Ip is an Associate Professor of Law in the Department of Law at The University of Hong Kong. Prior to joining HKU, he taught at University College London (UCL) and the Chinese University of Hong Kong, where he served as Assistant Dean of the Faculty of Law.

Dr Ip is an expert in public health law and ethics, interested in how the law can be used to promote population health in ethical ways. He has completed an advanced degree at The University of Sydney Faculty of Medicine and Health, specialising in bioethics. His relevant work has appeared in The Lancet Public Health, Bioethics, and the Journal of Public Health. He is writing the first scholarly book on Hong Kong’s public health law to be published by Routledge.

His award-winning research on comparative administrative and constitutional law has been published in peer-reviewed periodicals such as The American Journal of Comparative Law, Oxford Journal of Legal Studies, International & Comparative Law Quarterly, and International Journal of Constitutional Law. He is the author of Hybrid Constitutionalism (Cambridge University Press, 2019) and a co-editor of The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Administrative Law (Oxford University Press, forthcoming 2020).