THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

To all new postgraduate students:

Academic Integrity and Student Plagiarism

This University regards plagiarism as a serious offence. The commission of plagiarism is a violation of the Regulations Governing Students' Academic Conduct Concerning Assessment. Any student who has committed plagiarism is liable to disciplinary action.

2. The University is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity as articulated in the educational aims and institutional learning outcomes for its curricula. A new website will be launched in the academic year 2019-20 to provide students with general guidance and useful links related to plagiarism. Further information on the website will be promulgated in due course.
