

Dr Hakwan Lau

Psychology Department
University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

Biography

Dr Hakwan Lau was born and raised in Hong Kong. After finishing his undergraduate studies in cognitive science & philosophy at HKU, he won a Rhodes scholarship and went to Oxford for his doctorate in experimental psychology and neuroscience. He has previously worked in London at the Wellcome Trust Centre for Neuroimaging, and in New York at Columbia University. He is currently a tenured associate professor at UCLA, where he runs a lab using a variety of methods including fMRI biofeedback & Bayesian computational modeling.