

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

SUMMER INSTITUTE 6 ASIA AS THE GLOBAL FUTURE

Payment Methods for Overseas Students

Bank Draft

Hong Kong Dollar bank draft drawn on any bank in Hong Kong is recommended for payment of programme fee from country outside Hong Kong as no bank charges would be charged by local banks in Hong Kong. The bank draft should be made payable to "The University of Hong Kong" with the Student's name, University Number and nature of payment written at the back of the bank draft and sent to the Faculty office together with offer of admission.

Wire Transfer

If it is not possible to arrange for the bank draft, HKD payment by wire transfer is also acceptable. However, in addition to the bank charges incurred at the student's home country side, local banks in HK would also charge an amount ranging from HK$100 to HK$250 for the wire transfer. Please be reminded that all these bank charges should be borne by the sender or remitter and only the net HKD remittance amount (after deducting any bank charges) would be updated to your own student account with the University. Details of our University's bank account for receiving payment through a wire transfer from overseas are given as follows:-

Banker's Name: The Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation Ltd. Hong Kong

Account Number: 002-222834-002

Account Name: The University of Hong Kong

Banker's Address: HSBC Main Building, 1 Queen's Road Central, Hong Kong

SWIFT Code: HSBCHKHCHKH

Please quote the student's University Number and Name in the bank payment reference.

Should the payment is made through wire transfer, please give us a copy of your remittance application with the bank so as to facilitate us to identify your payment in the university bank account and contact us subsequently for the confirmation of the net HKD payment amount received as well as the outstanding amount (if any) in your own student account.

December 2008