Plagiarism

Plagiarism is defined in the Regulations Governing Conduct at Examinations – “as the unacknowledged use, as one’s own, of work of another person, whether or not such work has been published”. In this University, plagiarism is a disciplinary offence. Any student who commits the offence is liable to disciplinary action.

Handling of Plagiarism Cases

Academically, the teachers will report plagiarism cases to the Chief Examiner/Head of Department and submit a recommendation to the Board of Examiners on whether the plagiarized work will receive a failed grade. There may also be disciplinary action against the student who commits the offence of plagiarism. A warning letter will be issued in cases of minor plagiarism. For more serious cases, the students concerned will be referred to the Vice-Chancellor for referral to the University Disciplinary Committee for disciplinary action. The Disciplinary Committee will investigate the complaint and may impose a wide range of penalties once a student is found guilty of this disciplinary offence. These penalties include a published reprimand, suspension of study for a period of time, and even expulsion from the University.

Students are strongly advised to read the booklets “What is Plagiarism” at <http://www.rss.hku.hk/plagiarism/> and “Plagiarism and How to Avoid It” at <http://www4.caes.hku.hk/plagiarism/> and to consult your teachers if you have any questions about how to avoid plagiarism.

1. Meals on Campus

University canteens are available and a variety of restaurants/food stalls/coffee shops are also located nearby. For more information, please visit <http://cedars.hku.hk/sections/campuslife/Catering/NewsMain.php>. Meal cost varies from around HKD30 to HKD50. Banking Arrangements

You are advised to bring enough cash, traveler’s cheques, or bank drafts to cover your expenses during the programme. If you exchange money before you come, remember to ask for small denomination bank notes (Taxis normally do not accept notes larger than HKD500). However, do not carry too much cash at any time. It will be easy for you to locate banks and currency exchange services at the Airport as well as on campus.

If you do not have a bank account in Hong Kong, you will need to transfer money for use on arrival. This can be done, either

- by instructing an overseas bank, one or two weeks prior to your departure. Arrange to send money in your name to a bank in Hong Kong (both HSBC and the Bank of East Asia have branches on the HKU campus); or

- by carrying traveller's cheques or a bank draft for deposit in a local account (personal cheques can also be deposited but may take up to three weeks to be cleared).

The majority of banks are open from 9:00am to 4:30pm, Monday to Friday, and from 9:00am to 12:30pm on Saturday. Most establishments in Hong Kong accept major credit cards such as VISA, MasterCard and American Express but the University and most campus outlets take cash or cheque only.

Weather in Hong Kong

Hong Kong has a subtropical climate with distinct seasons. The summer weather is usually hot and humid. Temperatures range from 26°C to 33°C. July is particularly a typhoon season. When a typhoon is approaching, warnings are broadcast on TV and radio, and signal indicates the storm's distance from Hong Kong. If a typhoon comes near (Signal 8), businesses and shops close down and flights may be cancelled.

Arrangement for Typhoon Signal No. 8 / Black Rainstorm Warning Signal

When Typhoon Signal No. 8 / Black Rainstorm Warning Signal is hoisted, the programme on that particular day will be cancelled. However, if the signal is lowered before 12:00 noon, the afternoon programme will be held as scheduled. If the signal is lowered before 3:00pm, the evening programme will be held as scheduled.

When Typhoon Signal No. 3 or Red Rainstorm Signal is in force, it should be assumed that the programme will be held as scheduled.
