

JC A-Connect Artwork Competition

Background

April is the 'Autism Awareness Month'. Each year, numerous activities are held around the world to raise awareness of Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and to promote a caring culture. To this end, the Jockey Club Autism Support Network ('JC A-Connect') is organising an artwork competition to promote care, respect and social inclusion in the community amidst the COVID-19 pandemic.

Objectives

- Provide an opportunity for Hong Kong students and the public to demonstrate their creativity and maximise their potential to the fullest through artwork creation;
- Showcase the award-winning artworks to the public; promote care, mutual respect and social inclusion in the community.

Theme

Combat COVID-19 in an inclusive society.

Details of the competition

1) Categories and qualifications

- Hong Kong primary school students
- Hong Kong secondary school students
- Other members of the public

2) Specifications

- There is no limit to the orientation of the paper, materials used and creation methods.
- The size of the artwork should be limited to 150cm tall and of reasonable weight to fit the potential exhibition in the future.
- Exhibition safety, public safety, construction safety and feasibility will be considered in the selection process, and the organiser has the right to decide whether the works meet the required conditions.
- Please pay attention to the submission requirements such as work descriptions, work proposals or videos if the submission is an installation, video or other interactive art forms (see online registration link for more details).
