

Speakers' Biography

Ms Shirley Wong

Service Supervisor

The Salvation Army

Shirley Wong, a registered social worker in Hong Kong, has built her career around fostering compassionate and respectful environments for older adults. She has held various supervisory and leadership roles within community-based and residential care services. In her current position as Service Supervisor at The Salvation Army, Shirley oversees service development, focusing on retirement planning and end-of-life care. She is dedicated to advancing palliative care and integrating the Eden Alternative approach in residential facilities, driving efforts to implement more person-centred and dignity-driven models of care in Hong Kong.

Ms Kiyo Pang

Project Co-ordinator

JCECC: End-of-Life Care in Residential Care Homes for the Elderly Project (New Territories East)

Tung Wah Group of Hospitals

Kiyo is the Project Co-ordinator of JCECC: End-of-Life Care in Residential Care Homes for the Elderly Project (New Territories East) in Tung Wah Group of Hospitals. She is a registered social worker. She holds a Master of Social Sciences in Social Work from Hong Kong Baptist University and a Master of Social Sciences in Gerontology from The University of Hong Kong. She has eight years of experience working in elderly-related services.