Workshop and Field Trip for Sheung Yue River Catchment

Abstract:

Designed specifically for teachers, this workshop and guided field trip of Sheung Yue River Catchment will enhance participants' knowledge of rivers in the local context. A comprehensive database and drone videos on Sheung Yue River help public appreciate the multiple values of our rivers. A field trip of Sheung Yue River begins at natural streams and farmland in the upper course of Sheung Yue River where river water has been diverted for irrigation, highlighting water quality issues. Participants will also visit Long Valley Wetland, a site of ecological importance. Through this programme, participants will learn about the crucial role of rivers in agriculture and ecological conservation.
