

Dr Yunzhe Liu

State Key Laboratory of Cognitive Neuroscience and Learning
Beijing Normal University

Biography

Dr Yunzhe Liu is Principal Investigator at State Key Laboratory of Cognitive Neuroscience and Learning at Beijing Normal University and at the Chinese Institute for Brain Research, Beijing. He received his PhD from the Max Planck Research Centre for Computational Psychiatry at University College London (UCL) in 2020. He then worked as a postdoctoral fellow at The University of Oxford from 2020 to 2021.

Dr Liu's research focuses on the computation of cognitive map and cognitive mechanisms. As the first author or corresponding author, he has published numerous academic papers in top journals, including Cell, Science, Nature Neuroscience, and Neuron, etc.