

50 Years Unchanged: 1 Heart, 1 Mind, 1 Goal

Abstract

The Hon Matthew Cheung Kin-chung, GBM, GBS, JP, former Chief Secretary for Administration of the Hong Kong SAR Government, looks back on his challenging and colourful government career of nearly 50 years, making him the longest serving senior official in Hong Kong's history.

What propelled this HKU graduate over the decades have been his strong passion for serving Hong Kong, resolve in building a caring, compassionate, cohesive and collaborative community and goal of preserving Hong Kong as a vibrant and iconic international city under One Country Two Systems. He firmly believes that Hong Kong will continue to shine and thrive.
