

Dr Austin Strange

Assistant Professor

Department of Politics and Public Administration

The University of Hong Kong

Biography

Dr Austin Strange is Assistant Professor in the Department of Politics and Public Administration at The University of Hong Kong. He holds a PhD from Harvard University, an MA from Zhejiang University, and a BA from the College of William & Mary.

Dr Strange's research examines China's contemporary and historical roles in the world economy, with a particular focus on China's approach to global development. He is co-author of Banking on Beijing: The Aims and Impacts of China's Overseas Development Program (forthcoming, Cambridge University Press). His research is published or forthcoming in peer-reviewed journals like American Economic Journal: Economic Policy, International Studies Quarterly, Journal of Conflict Resolution, and the Journal of Contemporary China.