

How to Present your SIGC Experience in your CV and Interview?

Speakers

Experiential
Learning
Team

Social Sciences students are equipped with Social Innovation and Global Citizenship (SIGC) internship experiences when entering the job market. This interactive workshop aims to facilitate fresh graduates to incorporate their experience in SIGC Internships into CV writing and job interview, and to enhance their confidence in the job hunting process. In addition to highlighting the tips and insights to fully utilize students' involvement of SIGC Internships, interactive exercise will be included during the workshop to consolidate these skills of participants.
