

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Information for UG and TPG Students on Academic Integrity and Student Plagiarism

To: All new HKU students

The University upholds the highest standards of academic integrity and accepts zero tolerance of plagiarism. Students who have committed plagiarism are subject to various consequences, including academic failure and disciplinary actions. According to the Policy on Student Plagiarism in Undergraduate and Taught Postgraduate Curricular, students who have committed plagiarism will be recorded in the University's central register where repeated offenders will be identified for the University to take respective actions.

2. To avoid committing plagiarism, students are strongly advised to visit <https://tl.hku.hk/plagiarism/> for more information on relevant policies and regulations, and learning resources.

June 2020