Remarks:

1. Students are allowed to choose one of the following disciplines as their first major.
 - China Studies
 - Geography
 - Politics and Public Administration
 - Social Policy and Social Development
 - Sociology
2. University requirements include a 6-credit Core University English course (CAES1000), a 6-credit English in the Discipline course, two 6-credit courses in Common Core Curriculum in two different Areas of Inquiry, and a non-credit-bearing online course UG5E1001.
3. Students who obtained the following qualifications will be granted 6 credits of Advanced Standing for Core University English course (CAES1000). Those who did not meet the following qualifications (or equivalent) are required to take CAES1000 in Year III, i.e. they are required to complete at least 126 credits to fulfil the graduation requirements.
 - achieved Level 3 or above in the English Language paper in the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSE)
 - achieved an overall IELTS score of no less than 6.5
 - achieved an overall TOEFL Internet-based test score of no less than 93
4. Students opting for a minor under Faculty of Social Sciences (FoSS) are required to make up the 6-credit introductory course by taking a 6-credit advanced disciplinary elective of your declared minor in lieu (i.e., a total of 36 credits advanced courses).
5. Students opting for a minor under non-FoSS are required to take courses based on the individual programme requirements. As a result, the credits of the introductory course(s) requested by your minor programme should be counted on top of 120 or 126 credits. In other words, students may need to take more than 120 credits to fulfil both of your disciplinary major and minor programme requirements, but not more than 144 credits.
