The Competition

- How to enter: Entries open from now until November 2, 2020. Contestants are required to “Like” the JC-WISE Facebook page (“the page”) and submit entries with a caption (no more than 20 words), date and location the photos were taken, their name and email via Inbox to the page.
- Open Voting: 20 finalists will be shortlisted for open voting from November 5 to 18 on the JC-WISE Facebook page.
- Entry Format: All entries must be submitted in JPEG or TIFF format, no larger than 10MB and at least 1,600 pixels on the longest edge. Watermarked entries are not allowed.
- Name the entries in the following format:
- Multiple entries are welcome.
- The Adjudicating Panel will judge the submissions according to three criteria: “Adherence to Theme” (60%); “Technique” (30%); and “Composition” (10%). The entry with the most “Like” in the open vote will be recognised as “My Favourite River Snap”.
- Results will be announced on JC-WISE’s website and Facebook page on November 19, 2020. Winners will be notified individually.

Terms and Conditions

- Contestants are reminded not to damage or disturb the natural environment or wildlife. Engaging wildlife by unscrupulous means like baiting, capturing, keeping them as pets, or scaring would lead to disqualification.
- All photo entries must be taken in the riparian areas of Hong Kong.
- All photo entries must be taken within the past two years (September 2018 to November 2020).
- Once submitted, the photo entry cannot be modified, and will not be returned.
- Contestants should declare that the photo entry does not infringe or violate, or involve elements that infringe or violate applicable law and regulations, including but not limited to crimes, violence, obscenity, indecency, libel, defamation, privacy invasion, or threatening.
- Contestants should declare and warrant that the photo entry is his/her original work. Contestants should warrant and guarantee that they had not, have not and/or will not give the above license to any third party.
- Contestants should warrant and guarantee that they are the sole owner of all the copyrights of the photo entry, and the entry does not infringe or violate any intellectual property rights held by any third parties.
- If an entry submitted by the contestant infringes or violates any third party's rights, including but not limited to intellectual property rights, and/or any legislation, law or regulation, the organiser will not be responsible for any consequences.
- When the organiser suffers from any claim or investigations conducted by any competent authorities, by reason of any right allegedly subsist in the entry or infringement of the same, contestant agrees to hold the organiser harmless and to indemnify the organiser in full for any direct or indirect loss and damage, economic loss, loss of reputation and/or any consequential loss and damage or otherwise, together with any expenses, costs and further loss and damage suffered and incurred by the organiser as a result of such claims and investigations.
- By submitting an entry to the competition, contestants have given an irrevocable perpetual non-exclusive license to the organiser to use, edit, modify, reproduce, publish and/or disseminate the submitted entry for any purposes, including but not limited to advertising and educational purposes by any means that the organiser thinks fit, without prior notice to or consent from the contestants.
- The organiser will have the sole and absolute right to cancel, adjourn or change any details including the date and venue of the competition without prior notice to any parties.
- The organiser reserves the right to amend, delete, supplement and interpret the Terms and Conditions from time to time, and to adjudicate any dispute arising from the competition. The decisions of the organiser will be final and binding on all contestants.
