

Professor Yuan Ming

Professor of School of International Studies
Dean of Yenching Academy
Peking University

Professor Yuan Ming is a world-renowned scholar in International Relations. She is the Dean of Yenching Academy of Peking University, Associate Dean of Peking University's Institute of International and Strategic Studies, Director of its Center for American Studies, and Professor of School of International Studies at the University.

Since 1993, Professor Yuan served as a Senior Research Scholar at the Carter Center in Atlanta, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and the Brookings Institution in Washington. Professor Yuan served as a trustee of the Asia Society in New York from 1998 to 2004 and as a board member on the International Advisory Board of the Council on Foreign Relations in 2004. She was a member of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference from 1998 to 2013. A long-term member of the Board of the United Nations Foundation, Professor Yuan has served on the University Grants Committee of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region from 2008 to 2014. In October 2015, she was appointed as an Honorary Professor by The University of Hong Kong.

Her publications include Cross Century Assignment: the International Relations Studies in China and A History of International Relations (1648-1989), which is one of the leading publications and textbooks in China. She is also the co-editor of Sino-American Relations (1945-1955); the Golden Age of U.S.-China-Japan Relations.